On the ball with the Manager

Welcome to today's visitors Chelsea, they come to Burnden Park today with hopes of doing the double over us after their amazing 4-3 win at Stamford Bridge earlier in the season.

But what everyone should remember is that we are in something of a run ourselves — unbeaten in our last three games, two of them away from home.

It has been a long time between games, however, with our visit to Norwich last weekend our first outing since January 9th when we played at Bristol City in the F.A. Cup. Prior to that, our last League game was on Boxing Day at Middlesbrough with the last attempt to play here at Burnden the abandoned New Year's Day fixture against Everton which ended at half-time.

So since this is our first game at Burnden this year, a happy New Year to all our fans.

It has been a very difficult time for us in recent weeks with disappointment after disappointment as games have been called off.

Our training has naturally suffered which is why we went to Spain for a few days in the sunshine to get the grass under our feet again.

Recently, we have been taking the players by coach the 40-odd miles to Cheshire where we have had the use of a sports centre at Northwich and this has been a welcome change to our routine.

I had thoughts at one stage of going over to the Blackpool area in the hope of finding a decent training surface, but in the end it turned out that they had been just as badly hit by the weather as the Bolton area.

Anyway, it's nice to be back in action in front of our own fans once again. We aim to keep up the good work and there's no time like the present for getting cracking.

Welcome to...

Successive victories over Manchester City and Birmingham have given Chelsea players the belief that they can escape relegation, even though they have been struggling at the foot of the table all season. The situation is still very serious but, if anyone can save them, then it is Danny Blanchflower.

The appointment of Mr. Blanchflower as manager until the end of the season was a shrewd move by the Chelsea board. He's a wise old character, with a top-class playing career behind him and, of course, he is also manager of the Northern Ireland team.

After watching Chelsea crushed 7-2 at Middlesbrough, the new manager said: "When you are a young side and you get hammered you can learn a thing or two from it. I'll teach them a few things. We won't lie down. We'll get up and fight. That's the only thing we can do."

Mr. Blanchflower's appointment is on a month-to-month basis until the end of this season when the situation will be reviewed.

After assessing his playing staff, Mr. Blanchflower has been making sweeping changes. He sold defender Steve Wicks to Derby for £275,000 and forward Kenny Swain to Aston Villa for £100,000 and used part of that cash in buying that goalscoring midfield man Eamonn Bannon from Hearts for £200,000.

The new manager has introduced several of his best young players and his decisive action has done much to raise what was a dangerously sagging morale.

The return of Peter Osgood to Stamford Bridge — before Mr. Blanchflower's appointment — was designed to boost the confidence of the younger players being brought along beside him.

Osgood and Tommy Langley are now the two main forwards with Clive Walker sometimes being called up to play on the wing.

Duncan McKenzie, signed from Everton for £165,000 earlier this season, has not always been able to get into the side and, though normally known for his goalscoring capabilities, has sometimes been played in mid-field.

Probably the first choice trio for the middle of the field, however, are Ray Wilkins, Gary Stanley, and Eamonn Bannon. But Ian Britton, Ray Lewington, Ron Harris and John Bumstead have all appeared in this department.

Giant centre-back Micky Droy was injured in the opening matches of the season and was out for four months. But he has now recovered to take up his position in the centre of the defence alongside 18-year-old Mickey Nutton.

Graham Wilkins, though normally a left-back, has returned on the opposite flank, thus enabling young David Stride to continue in his strongest position on the left.

Chelsea

Back row- Peter Bonetti, Lee Frost, Tommy Langley, Trevor Aylott, Steve Wicks (now Derby County), Micky Droy, Bill Garner (now Cambridge United), David Hay, Ron Harris, John Phillips.

Middle row- Graham Wilkins, Ray Lewington (now Vancouver Whitecaps), Clive Walker, Gary Locke, Kenny Swain (now Aston Villa), Ian Britton, John Bumstead.

Injuries have caused a lot of problems in goal.

When veteran England goal-keeper Peter Bonetti was injured, his deputy Welsh international John Phillips had the misfortune to be out of action — with mumps! This gave an unexpectedly early chance for Bob Iles, signed from Southern League Weymouth for £10,000 during the summer, to make his First Division bow.

Chelsea have won two away games — at Wolves (1-0) and Manchester City (3-2). They drew at Tottenham (2-2), Birmingham (1-1), Q.P.R. (0-0) and Southampton (0-0).

They were beaten at Coventry (2-3), Derby (0-1), Liverpool (0-2), Everton (2-3), Leeds (1-2), Middlesbrough (2-7), and Ipswich (1-5).

We knocked them out of the League Cup in the second round here at Burnden Park and they were beaten 0-3 at Manchester United in the third round of the F.A. Cup.

PETER BONETTI (Goalkeeper). Peter seems to go on forever! He first took his place in the Chelsea goal back in 1960 and, though once given a free transfer, he was called back during an emergency. He has now played about 600 League games. Peter won seven full England caps plus under-23 honours.

RON HARRIS (Defender/Midfield). Ron is one of Chelsea's longest-serving players who won England under-23 honours in his early days. In 1967 he became the youngest captain of an F.A. Cup Final team when he led the side against Spurs. He now holds the club record with more than 600 League appearances.

GRAHAM WILKINS (Defender). Graham was first drafted into the Chelsea side against Ipswich on Boxing Day 1972 but it was in 1976/77 that he earned the left-back position for his own. He has now returned at right-back.

MICKY NUTTON (Defender). Mickey made his League debut against Bristol City in December and has been performing so consistently that Chelsea were able to sell Steve Wicks and bank £275,000. Mickey is still only 18 years old.

DAVID STRIDE (Defender). David was drafted in for his first League appearance at Birmingham in September, making such an impression that he has since been holding the left-back position.

GARY STANLEY (Forward). Gary burst into the Chelsea side three seasons ago and has been outstanding with his creative displays in midfield. It is something of a mystery to Stamford Bridge fans why he has not yet gained some international recognition.

PETER OSGOOD (Forward). Former England centre-forward Peter rejoined his old club a few weeks ago after a spell in the United States, and celebrated his second Chelsea debut by opening the scoring at Middlesbrough. Osgood gave Chelsea wonderful service for eight years, and won four England caps, before going to Southampton for a £275,000 fee in 1974. He was part of the Saints' 1976 F.A. Cup winning team.

EAMONN BANNON (Midfield). Chelsea paid Hearts £200,000 for Eamonn in January and he made his first appearance for them against Birmingham at Stamford Bridge. Eamonn made his bow for Hearts in the Scottish League in 1976/77 and last season he scored 16 goals for them.

RAY WILKINS (Midfield). Ray grew up at Stamford Bridge and was made captain in 1975 during his first season in the senior team. In 1975/76 he was top scorer with 12 goals. He won rapid selection for England and he now has 21 caps.

TOMMY LANGLEY (Forward). Tommy has played for England at schoolboy, youth and under-21 levels and he was Chelsea's top scorer with 13 goals last season. He has been in the lead for most of this term, too, and eight goals are to his credit at the moment.

CLIVE WALKER (Forward). Clive did much of the damage when coming in as substitute against us at Stamford Bridge in October, scoring once and making two more goals in their astonishing recovery from 0-3 to 4-3. He played his first League game for Chelsea two seasons ago.

IAN BRITTON (Midfield). Yet another graduate from the youth teams, Ian first appeared in Chelsea's League team in 1972/73 and he has been a regular for the past three seasons.

RAY LEWINGTON (Midfield). Ray served his apprenticeship at Stamford Bridge and made his first League appearance in 1975/76. He is fast approaching his 100th League game for the club.

MICKY DROY (Defender). Micky is one of the tallest players in the Football League and almost insurpassable in the air. Another example of the outstanding players produced in the club's nursery, Micky made the first team in 1971 and for almost three years was a regular at centre-back. He has recently returned following injury.

BOB ILES (Goalkeeper). Chelsea signed Bob from Southern League Weymouth for £10,000 last summer and, because of injuries to Bonetti and Phillips, he quickly found himself playing First Division football.

New dates and ticket details

Secretary Des McBain has been an extremely busy man with lots of postponed games to be re-arranged.

The latest new dates are for the visit of Everton and Arsenal to Bolton. This third attempt to play the Everton game will now be on Tuesday, April 3rd and Arsenal visit us on Tuesday, March 13th. Both games start at 7-30 p.m.

Other first team rearrangements are the visits to Aston Villa and Derby County. We shall be at Villa Park on Wednesday, March 7th while the game at the Baseball Ground will be on Wednesday, March 21st. Again both have 7-30 p.m. starts.

But for Mr. McBain, the problems don't end with the first team. There have also been numerous Central League postponements.

New dates for reserve games are Wednesday, February 28th v. Bury (home), Wednesday, March 21st v. Blackpool (home) and Tuesday, April 10th v. Burnley (home). Kick-offs are at 7-30 p.m.

First team games still to be re-arranged are at home against Liverpool, which could be early in May and at Leeds United.

Tickets for stand seats are available now for our remaining home games during normal office hours. For information about matches and tickets ring Bolton 21101.

Mark wins the prize

Congratulations to Mark Cowley, 271 Bolton Road, Ashton-in-Makerfield, whose entry in our New Year picture quiz landed him the prize of a couple of stand seats for a first team game here at Burnden.

Mark's was the first all-correct entry opened and the answers are:

1. Alan Gowling's header at goal in the game against Manchester City was a goal.

2. The picture showed the Wanderers' first goal on their return to Division One. The game was against Bristol City and Alan Gowling was the scorer.

3. The Wanderers scored 63 goals in the League last season.

4. Jim McDonagh was surrounded by smoke during the game against Liverpool at Anfield.

Well done Mark. Keep a lookout for the postman bringing your tickets.

Peter's big 'thanks'

Midfield man Peter Reid, injured in the New Year's Day game against Everton, has now left hospital after a knee ligament operation.

Peter sends his thanks to all the people who visited him and sent him gifts to cheer him up at this depressing stage of his career.

And all Bolton fans join together in wishing Peter a speedy return to full fitness and look forward to seeing him back in first team action.
